

NorthEast Real Estate Journal

SCHOOR DEPALMA CHANGES NAME TO CMX

Manalapan, N.J. — Schoor DePalma has changed its name to CMX in order to position itself in the marketplace as a national firm, while also providing staff members with a unified vision of the firm's mission, values and client service commitment. The company's three subsidiaries, Advantage Engineering in Harrisburg, Pa., CMX in Phoenix and Damiano Long in Camden County, N.J., also assumed the name.

02 JUNE 2008 VOL 15/NO 6 PAGE 10
private investors.

REGIONAL CAPITAL GROUP LAUNCHES NEW INVESTMENT DIVISION

Marlton, N.J. -- Regional Capital Group has launched a new investment division, Regional Capital Investments (RCI). RCI serves as a partner and buyer of commercial and residential properties and projects and considers land for development and reposition opportunities. The division will also work to discover new opportunities in varied markets.