

NJPA REAL ESTATE JOURNAL

Friday, January 27, 2006

COVERING THE STATES OF NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA

In the January issue of the South Jersey Magazine Braungart of RCG is a person to watch in 2006

MARLTON, NJ — Paul Braungart, founder of Regional Capital Group (RCG) is prominently positioned in the January issue of SJ Magazine, as a leading person to watch in 2006.

“Whether in business, healthcare, the arts, education, or fundraising, the 26 people highlighted in this special section are leading their industry into a brighter future,” said Marianne Aleardi, editor, SJ Magazine.

SJ Magazine reported: Paul Braungart is a key player in real estate financing.

According to Braungart, only four years

Paul Braungart

after forming Regional Capital Group, a national real estate lender based in Marlton, RCG 1, the company's newest financing fund for commercial developers and investors was formed. The fund is designed specifically to accommodate loan construction financing.

With more than two decades of experience in commercial real estate lending and investment, Braungart has extensive experience in creative real estate funding.

An entrepreneur since 1980, Braungart's experience included the founding of companies specializing in commercial mortgage banking, real estate development, and real estate investment. As the founder and CEO of numerous small companies in other industries, chiefly in the State of New Jersey, he developed systems for business and financial management. ■